

Specialist subjects

In relation to specialist subjects, students attend short courses or do relevant research.

	Hours
*Medical lectures	115
*Communication skills (e.g. 'non-violent communication')	30
*Legal context of professional practice (in your country)	20
*Professional rights (your own national laws)	20
*Eurythmy (artistic and curative)	20
*Curative education and social therapy	15
*Waldorf curriculum	15
*Art history	15
Planetary Seals –various mediums	15
Platonic solids –various mediums	15
Clay modeling concave/convex	15
Biodynamic agriculture	15
Speech	10
Music therapy	10
Projective geometry	10
Form drawing	10
Bothmer gym	10
Total	360

N.B. Subjects marked with asterisks are mandatory; for those not marked, students may substitute other specialist subjects, as long as they have a relation to art therapy, anthroposophy or other modalities of professional therapeutic and care work. Please provide written evidence of the courses you have attended or research you have done. Recognition will be given for prior learning. The hours can be included as independent work/study hours.